

Attention Young Composers!

2012 NBA Young Composer Mentor Project

The National Band Association is pleased to join the College Band Directors National Association Education Symposium in hosting the 2012 Young Composer Mentor Project, which will be held June 24-26 on the campus of Arizona State University.

Three young composers (age 18-25) will have the opportunity for intensive study and interaction during the three-day period with three nationally recognized composer-conductor-educators.

Each young composer selected will:

- ✓ Receive two 60-minute private composition lessons
- ✓ Participate in two 60-minute composition seminars
- ✓ Have their music rehearsed and performed by an accomplished ensemble
- ✓ Attend selected CBDNA Education Symposium performances and clinics

There are no tuition/instructional fees. Dormitory housing and some meals will be provided to those accepted. Participants will be responsible for their own transportation and the remaining meals. The three composers selected will be responsible, however, for their own transportation expenses.

Young composers (age 18-25) who wish to be considered for this unique opportunity must submit the following:

- ✓ One (bound) full score of a work for symphonic band
- ✓ A one-page resume
- ✓ A cover letter discussing ultimate professional/creative goals
- ✓ Two letters of recommendation

Compact disc recordings are welcomed, but not required.
A self-addressed return mailer with return postage must be included.

Postmark deadline for application materials: Monday, April 2, 2012
Notification of application status: May 1, 2012

Address all application materials and inquiries to:

Prof. Mark Camphouse, Coordinator
NBA Young Composer Mentor Project
George Mason University
Department of Music
4400 University Drive, MS 3E3
Fairfax, VA 22030